

Empathy map canvas

News Nest

An Android Application for Keeping Up with the Latest Headlines

Originally created by Parimi Monish at

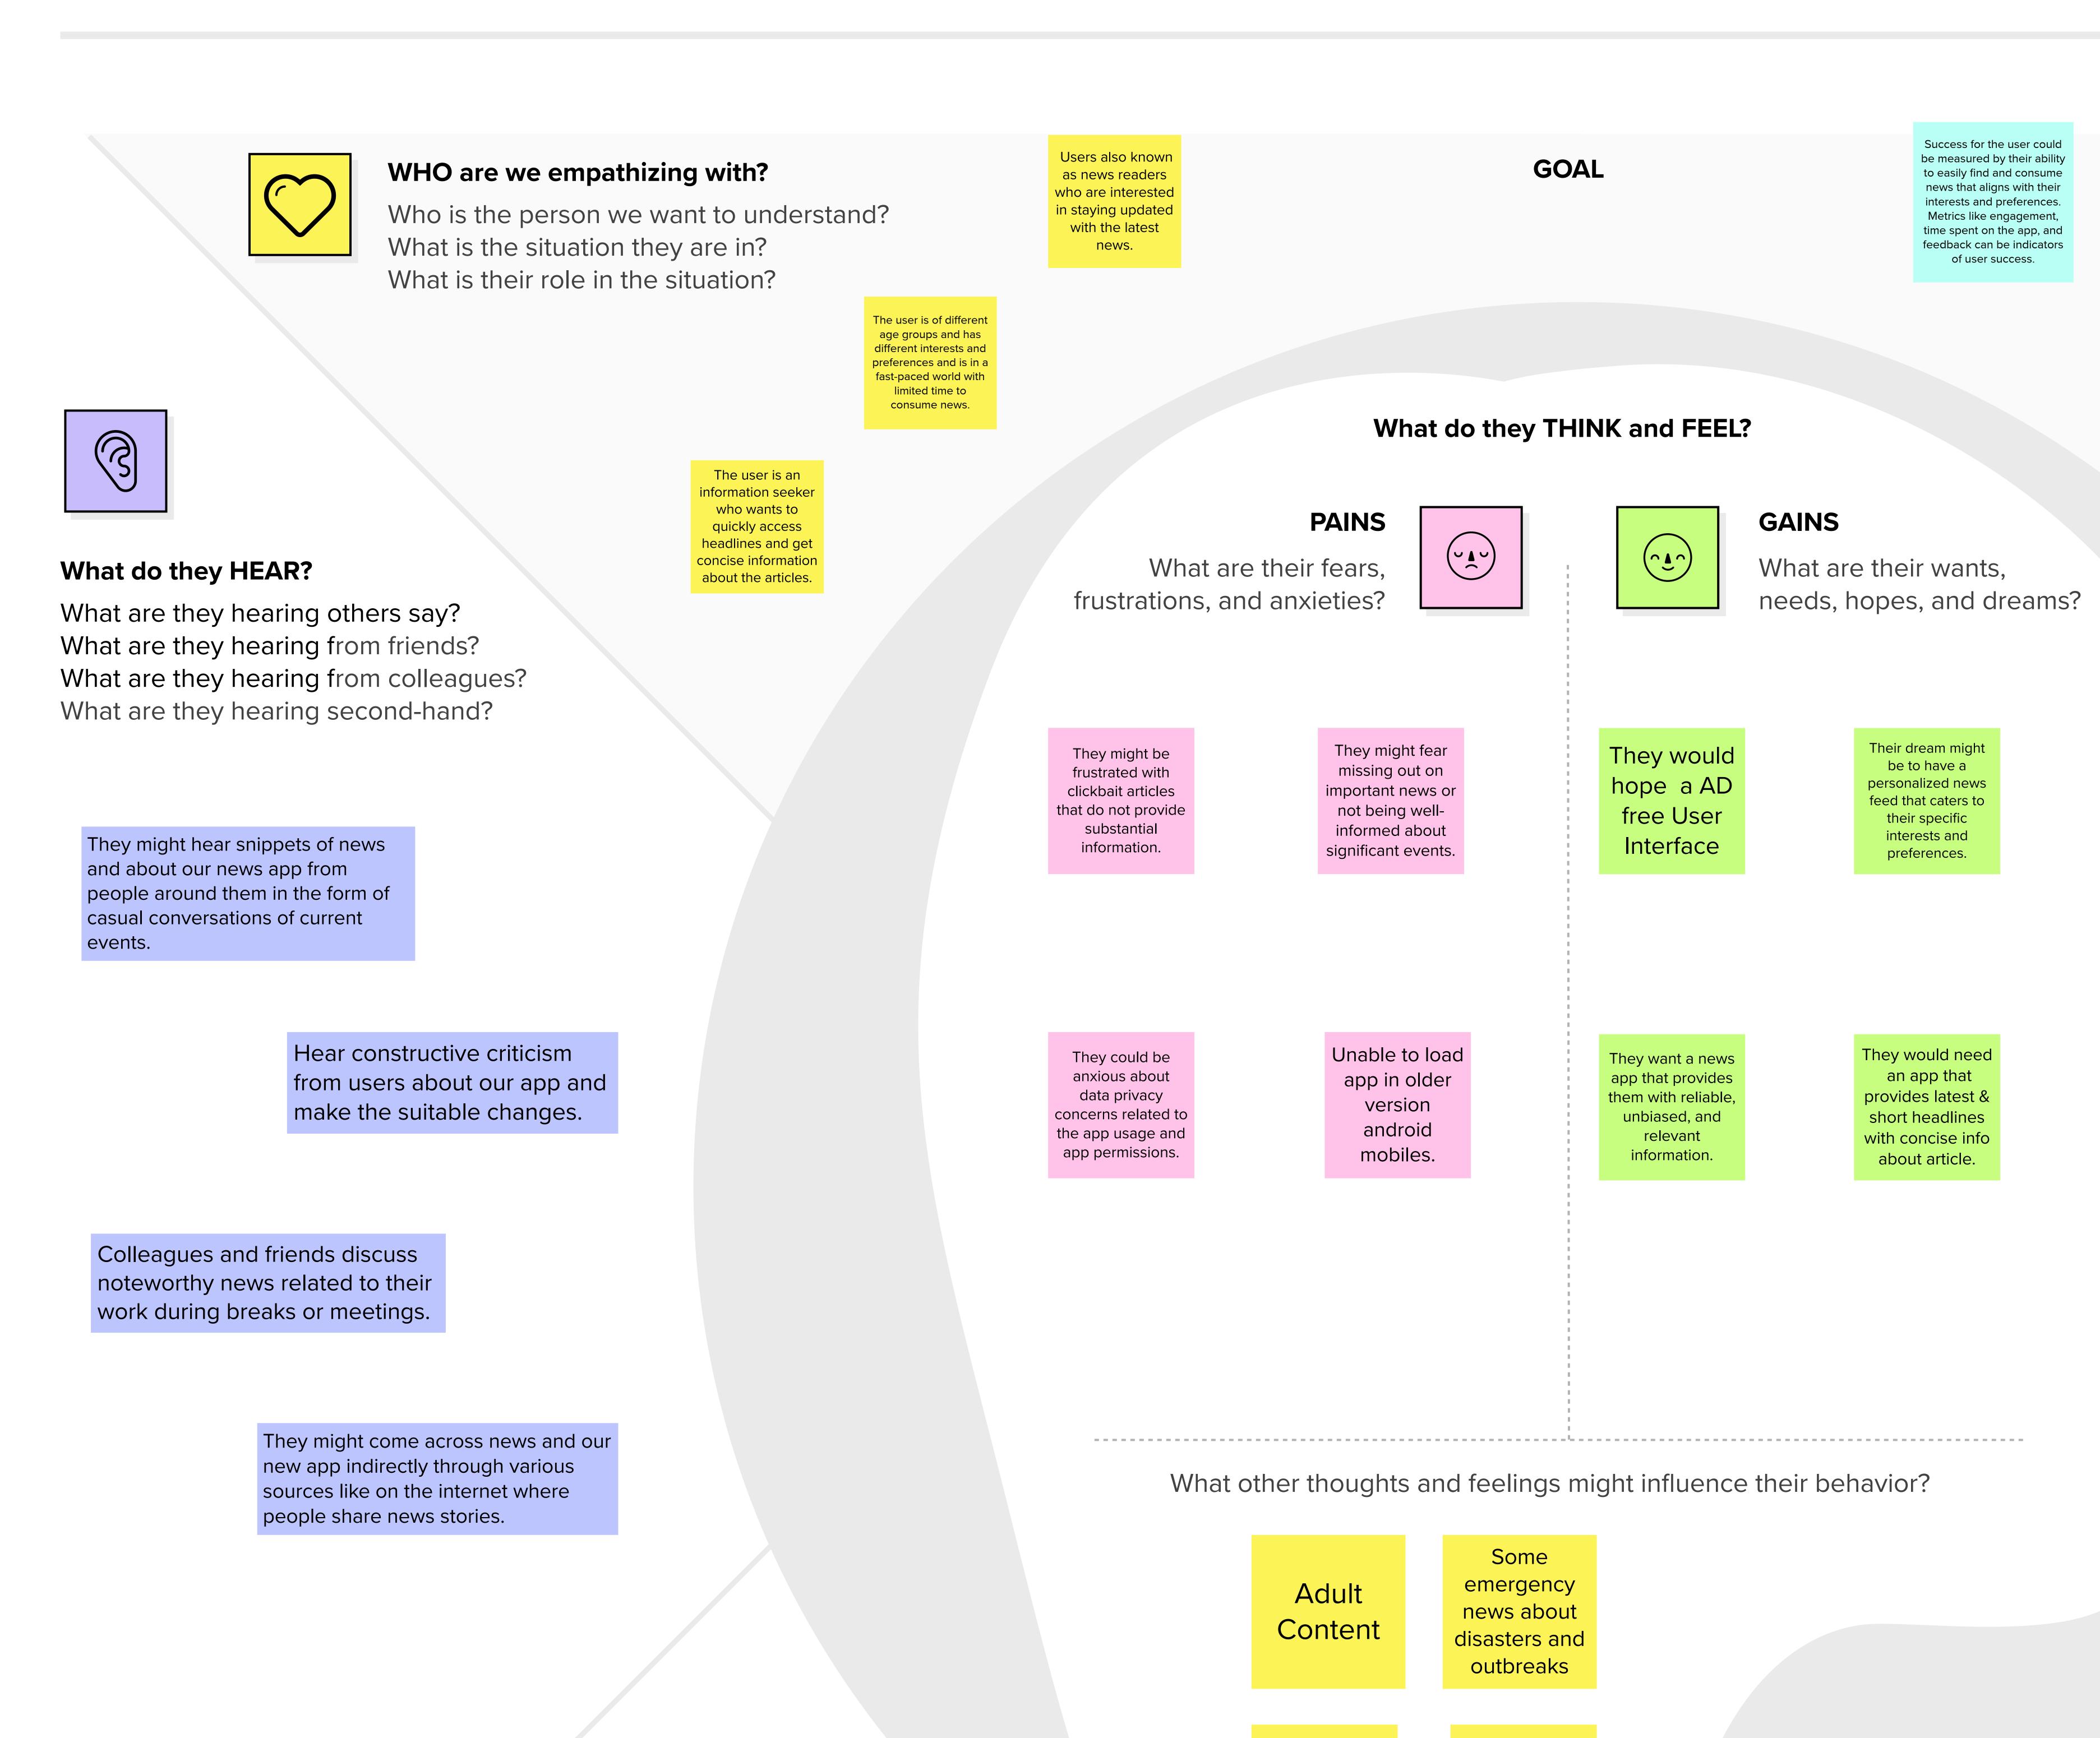

Share template feedback

News Nest: An Android Application For Keeping Up with the Latest Headlines

Our app is user-friendly Android application designed for individuals who seek to stay informed with ease. It offers a seamless experience for accessing the latest headlines across various categories, ensuring users never miss out on crucial updates. With a clean interface, personalized content recommendations, and reliable sourcing, It provides a hassle-free way to navigate the ever-evolving world of news. Stay informed, stay ahead with our app.

What do they DO?

What do they do today?
What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Users typically visit various news websites or use multiple news apps to stay updated. They might follow specific journalists, blogs, or news outlets on social media platforms.

Users often express frustration with information overload and the difficulty in discerning credible sources.

Classifieds

With an improved news app, users might spend more time engaging with content due to a more streamlined and personalized experience.

What do they need to DO?

Users might need to transition from their current method of consuming news to using your app as their primary source. This could involve adjusting their habits and routines.

Users are likely exposed to a range of media, including TV shows, movies, articles, and social media content. This can shape their interests an preferences, influencing

the type of news they are inclined to consume.

What do they SEE?

What do they SAY?

A user-friendly,

intuitive

interface that

allows easy

navigation.

What have we heard them say?

What can we imagine them saying?

In the marketplace, users

may see a variety of news

apps and platforms offering and user experiences. They may also observe trends in news consumption, such as a shift towards mobile app

They might see people around them discussing

or sharing news stories,

whether in person or on social media. This can influence their own

interest in specific topics or events.

What do they see in their immediate environment?

They could express

frustration with

excessive

advertisements or

pop-ups that disrupt

their reading

experience.

What do they see others saying and doing?

What do they see in the marketplace?

What are they watching and reading?

lifferent features, content,

What do they need to do differently?

What decision(s) do they need to make?

How will we know they were successful?

What job(s) do they want or need to get done?

excessive time searching for news. They need a platform that delivers relevant information

In their immediate

physical cues or digital prompts that remind them to check the news. This could include notifications on their devices, newsstands, or conversations with others

about current events.

environment, users may see

they want to allocate to reading news, and which articles to delve into for more detailed information.

